

June 2016 - Academy Days Co-op congratulates our graduating seniors and kindergarteners as they embark on new chapters in their lives.

Pictured right are our kindergarten graduates: Juliana Newell of Montgomery, Noah Camp of Deatsville and Myah Ziska of Wetumpka. They will start first grade at Academy Days Co-op in the fall.

Held at Coosada Baptist Church, the Academy Days Co-op meets weekly during the school year for homeschoolers in preschool through high school to take classes in subjects such as computer programming, science labs, foreign languages, acrylic painting and P.E.

Congratulations to our seniors and kindergarteners!
